Welcome to Venice!

We want to share some secrets with our readers to experience Venice in the most authentic way possible.

Here is our favourite itinerary designed for those unfamiliar with Venice, aimed at making your experience a total immersion into Venetian life.

Day 1

In the morning, treat yourself to breakfast in the vicinity. Majer in Campo San Giacomo, just two minutes from our property, has three outdoor tables to enjoy the characteristic atmosphere of our neighbourhood.

Alternatively, don't miss the delicious Tiramisu at Pasticceria Rio Marin, just a 4-minute walk away. If you love gelato, Gelato di Natura in Campo San Giacomo dell'Orio will be your perfect stop.

Next, head to admire the local fish and vegetable market at Rialto (Tuesday to Saturday mornings). Make a stop at Bar Rialto da Lollo for a delicious "tramezzino" (a venetian sandwich)

Day 1

Alternatively, for a quick Venetian lunch near Rialto, stop by SEPA (where you eat standing, but you'll be amazed) or Al Portego, both perfect places to savor small and inexpensive Venetian dishes traditional "cichet", accompanied by a glass of wine.

If you love extravagant atmospheres, don't miss a visit to Libreria Acqua Alta (Calle lunga di Santa Mana Formosa), where books, gondolas, cats, and a terrace blend into a unique mix to explore Walk through Campo San Luca, Campo Manin, and Campo Santo Stefano until you reach Accademia Bridge, from which you can enjoy one of the most picturesque views of the city!

Day 1

Continue towards the Zattere, making a stop at Cantinon Bottegon Da Schiavi for another taste of "cichet" and a glass of wine on the San Trovase bridge. Follow the long bank that runs along the Giudecca Canal until you reach Punta della Dogana for the most picturesque photos. The majestic Chiesa della Salute will be the next destination, just around the corner.

Don't forget to enjoy a short gondola crossing (Traghetto) of the Grand Canal without spending a fortune. The gondola is taken after Campo San Gregorio by turning right, the service operates until 5 pm in the afternoon (6 pm in summer), costs 2 euros, and the crossing lasts a few minutes.

Day 1

Sunset is a not-to-be-missed spectacle in Venice! Head towards Piazza San Marco, pass it and allow yourself to watch the sunset in the distance from Riva del Sette Martiri, on the bridge in front of Hotel Ca' Formenta. Even if you arrive after sunset, the view remains breathtaking.

In the nearby Via Garibaldi, you'll find a wide selection of bars for a Venetian aperitif and one of our favourite restaurants. Al Nevodi.

After sunset, immerse yourself in the magic of a quieter Piazza San Marco, away from the tourist crowds. Rosso Pomodoro near San Marco is ideal for Italian dishes such as pizza and pasta with fresh tomatoes.

Day 1

Alternatively, if you prefer more traditional dishes. Al Volto, a stone's throw from the Rialto Bridge or Al Promessi Sposi near Campo Sant: Apostoli await you with its specialities or all Ombra del Leon with an amazing view of Grand Canal.

For a pre or post-dinner drink, the Erbaria area with its small establishments at the foot of the Rialto Bridge a the right place.

Day 2 - Islands

We recommend dedicating the second day (at least in port) to exploring the islands of Murano, Burano, and Torcello, with a 24-hour ticket (cost: 256). We suggest starting early. The earlier you arrive at the major islands, the better your chances of visiting them without the crowds of tourist groups arriving after 10 am.

Therefore, go straight to Burano (and optionally to Torcello) and later, returning to Venice, make a stop in Murano, if time allows. Burano is my favourite, where you will find houses painted in the most disparate colours. Returning to Venice, in Murano, immerse yourself in the magic of glassmaking.

Day 2 - Islands

We suggest you leave very early in the morning (before 9) for Burano so as not to have to queue too much at Fondamenta Nove.

The sooner you arrive in Busano, the sooner you will enjoy this beautiful island.

The 24h vaporetto ticket allows you to return to Venice at Fondamenta Nove - from Burano (line 12) or from Murano (line 4.1) - so that you can explore the Cannaregio district, or if you've already seen the sunset from Riva del Sette Martiri on the first day, today you could go and admire it from the Rialto Bridge.
